Everyone's Getting Married, Vol. 3: Izumi Miyazono ... Instead of artificial drama between the two leads, with the usual shojo recriminations and misunderstandings, I like that Everyone's Getting Married is more likely to have a character make a self-aware realization, so that when they come back together, they're better for each other. Everyone's Getting Married - mangarock.com Asuka is a talented woman who works hard at her real estate job, but her true dream is to get married and be a loving housewife. She seems to be on the fast track to realizing that dream... until her boyfriend of five years suddenly asks to break up. Everyone's Getting Married (manga) - Anime News Network This fantasy series promises a bevy of princes, but it might come up short for all but die-hard fans of the genre. Rebecca Silverman weighs in.

Everyone's Getting Married, Vol. 1 by Izumi Miyazono Everyone's Getting Married is a wonderfully mature josei (intended for women) title featuring a strong lead character and a slice of life story. The tone is gentle and similar to another Viz title: Happy Marriage?! by Maki Enjoji.
